An optimistic outlook from the side of the road
It'll never make you fall,
At least that's what you're told
But you've got something they'll never understand
Ultimate success in high demand
Life ain't what it used to be
It'll take you back in time at ease
We'll turn it all around in the end
You're making a name
Breaking out all those aspirations on the line
It's all over now
Forget how they broke you down
Now you'll have the time of your life
Had it up to here but it's not over yet
It won't be long til you'll be a national threat
You've got something inside that never dies
You're moving on
You've severed all your ties
I think you've?
They never matterd anyways
You're moving on

You're making a name
Breaking out all those aspirations on the line
It's all over now
Forget how they broke you down
Now you'll have the time of your life
I've been here
Watching every move
I see you down and out
I heard you say you're through
And you're through
(I heard you say you're through)
You're making a name
Breaking out all those aspirations on the line
It's all over now
Forget how they broke you down
Now you'll have the time of your life
You're making a name
Breaking out all those aspirations on the line
It's all over now
Forget how they broke you down

Now you'll have the time of your life
(Now you'll have the time of your life)
