So tell me if it's wonderful to sleep alone tonight You said it was ok to breathe again but I'm not holding my breath
For once just settle down as long as you're in my head I'll never sleep again level with me
This wasn't the situation I wanted it be So run we'll play hide - n - seek count to ten now let this begin
I'm not the one who's giving in don tell me this happens all the time
It's alright just lie you'll be safe with me
These secrets were always kept behind Closed doors and safe from wondering eyes
Just lie tonight you'll be safe with me now lie down We'll sleep on forever right now I'm having trouble believing I can't tell if I'm asleep or awake
This simple concept of breathing seems non-existing when there is no air
I can feel you near me watching my every move
I've come to haunt you it's the end so say goodnight
