

Goodbye Satellite "A Picture Of You"

Visit "A Picture Of You" on MotoLyrics.com

I hate when you're distant, I hate when you say there is a picture of you now falling
A picture of you now falling

The story starts with a little bit of everyone else in a time when everything, was so out of hand and you were too. I should have never felt for you

I was the weird kid that everyone made fun of at school the worst of a kind, but not the worst for you I was sick and tired. I'm feeling alone.
How did you feel when I was gone

I was trapped in the shadows of your dead end streets
I was looking for the one but I never did
I was hating myself. So insecure.
Not just waiting for another chance

I hate when you're distant, I hate when you say (it's just a waste of time with you)
there is a picture of you now falling
A picture of you is now falling

So sick of saying now I'm taking you to where I'm lost in a cloud I tried not to fall, I'm back to the time when your emotions know where to be found

I was trapped in the shadows of your dead end streets
I was looking for the one but I never did
I was hating myself. So insecure.
Not just waiting for another chance

I hate when you're distant, I hate when you say (it's just a waste of time with you)
there is a picture of you now falling
A picture of you is now falling

I'm gonna figure it out I'll be just driving around halusinating that I'm screaming "the way" out loud It's so true and it's all being blue. And I'm done

I'm not so sure who to miss why don't you eat this
