Tear out my insides, This plague ruins my life
Her fangs were sunk deep and now I'm riddled with disease
She spreads her virus, with every kiss
And no one's safe, no one's safe

Motives so evil, My wounds won't heal
She aims to destroy whatever good is left in me
Don't look in her eye, you'll be hypnotized
And mind her tongue, 'cause every words a lie!

Oh no what have I become now
It takes hold, I got a taste for blood now
Don't fight, Run for your life
(Look at what she's done to me
Look at what she's done to me)

Get a stake and put it through my heart now
No ones safe near me when the sun goes down
Don't fight!
Run for your life, 'cause the massacre begins tonight

Darkness takes a hold, My blood runs cold
Your blood is so warm, come join me for eternity
She'll pass on the curse, I wasn't the first
There is no way, to satisfy her thirst

Oh no what have I become now
It takes hold, I got a taste for blood now
Don't fight, Run for your life
(Look at what she's done to me
Look at what she's done to me)

Get a stake and put it through my heart now
No ones safe near me when the sun goes down
Don't fight!
Run for your life, 'cause the massacre begins tonight

Oh no what have I become now
It takes hold, I got a taste for blood now
Don't fight, Run for your life
(Look at what she's done to me

Look at what she's done to me)

Get a stake and put it through my heart now

No ones safe near me when the sun goes down

Don't fight!

Run for your life, 'cause the massacre begins tonight
