Dress me up
Dress me sharp, chic and trendy
No matter what I do, I can't compete with you
So come out and show me when you're ready

On your birthday, in your birthday suit
I'd pay money just to pay attention to you
When you wipe the looks off all their faces
Looks off all their faces

Whoa, watch out
Now there are far too many candles to blow out
Even when the wind picks up
Even when the wind picks up

Awkward silence turns to mischief
Now we're falling towards the door
I know I'm sparking much more than he did
That's how we wound up on the floor

On your birthday, in your birthday suit
I'd pay money just to pay a visit to you
Baby can we take this other places

Take this other places

Dress me up
Dress me sharp, chic and trendy
Dress me up
Dress me sharp, chic and trendy

On your birthday, in your birthday suit
I'd pay money just to pay attention to you
When you wipe the looks off all their faces

On your birthday, in your birthday suit
I'd pay money just to pay a visit to you
Baby can we take this other places

On your birthday
Take this other places
On your birthday

Take this other places
Take this other places
