Can you hear me? whisper in your ear
Can you feel me? moving my hands up to your face
Where i can touch your cheeks so sweet
And dream about the future, as i close in on your lips
The sweetness of the kiss
It's enough to bring me back to save the day
Why don't we say good-bye to the past 3 years
Of my life
Why don't we say good-bye to the past 3 years
Angel in disguise

Can you hear me? as we talk about tea
Can you feel me? as i bring you closer to me
So you can feel my heart beat in your chest
We dream about the future
As i close in on your lips
The sweetenss of this kiss
It's enough to brings us back to save the day
Why don't we say good-bye to the past 3 years
Of my life
Why don't we say good-bye to the past 3 years
Angel in disguise

And if i ever felt i'd do this all over
(you bet your heart shape around me)
Touching your lips to mine.
It's enough to bring me back
Why don't we say good-bye to the past 3 years
Of my life
Why don't we say good-bye to the past 3 years
Angel in disguise
Why don't we say good-bye (good-bye) to the past 3
years
Of my life
Why don't we say good-bye (good-bye) to the past 3
Angel in disguise
