You know what I'm sayin ma'
We've been through some stuff together
And... I know you got some things to say to me
Cause I got somethings to say to you
And there's been a lot of times between us
And I think you should just let it out ma'

Sing it to me...

I don't know where it started
I don't know what to say
I have unspoken feelings that
I hold back every day

You'z the type of girl I can take home to my mama's
Being on the phone late talkin about out dramas
You knew we had a problem
You was a night among the shelf
I couldnt have for myslef

So you know I played my position and I played it well
But there was feelings inside and everybody could tell
So we went on our own paths despite how we felt You went to college and I'm in the studio tryin to get my knowledge
You stayed with text and I stayed with the scripts Babygirl we was livin life like a flick

So everything happens for a reason
Till the next season
If your still belivin
We both wake up and find out we aint dreamin
We both seperated but maybe it was for a teachin
And maybe in time I'll see you wearin my wedding ring...

I don't know where it started
I don't know what to say
I have unspoken feelings that
I hold back every day

I know we got to work out a lot of situations

With our distance and the haters it a lot of complications
But it's nothing we can't handle and yes it might be hard
But I rather take that sacrifice then for us to be apart

You know our loves a secret that's why were the secret lovers
Were taking a risk to lose a lot so we could be with each other
I guess no one can see how me and you could be

I guess they're mad at the fact that were the one with the opportunity
Cause I'm feelin you and babygirl your feelin me

In every type of relationship there's always kinds of drama
Whether you do go or you do bad it's always a form of type of karma
Some people cannot take sometimes they think it's hate
But really though they're the ones causing the problems certain mistakes

I'm not even tryin to do that I'm tryin to set myself up right
1 or 2 mistakes is kool but babygirl not every night
Sometimes I like to waste time but my times already been wasted...

I don't know where it started
I don't know what to say
I have unspoken feelings that
I hold back every day

Now I don't know how this trial came to pass
To different seperate lives in hopes a chance to be together
Through any kind of weather even though the road hasn't got much better

But it's the unspoken feelings of man with a real heart Expressin what I feel but it's still just too hard
If I was to use words you would find where I stand Still you know everything with the touch of my genital hands

And I don't plan on being bad to ya
I'm gonna be nothing but a man for ya
Being true being real being skilled

At seein the prospectives of how you feel

Though I'm always makin moves I can never find the time

Are ya feelin me securities what I need up in my life
I can't take everything and toss it to the side
Cause I'm savin that succuss for our future and life
No games...

I don't know where it started
I hold back every day
