There's a lot of things that I will do
When I am all grown up
It's time for me to start some of them now
Wake up everyday to this
Alarm clock on my shelf
Responsibility means get up now

I got a lot to learn
I got a lot to learn

I've been thinking about my
Aspirations in the sky
There's a lot of life a head of me
And I got a lot to learn

I know that everyday will count for something
Cause I know I'd never work for nothing
I know that someday I will have to move on
And move out

I've been thinking about my
Aspirations in the sky
There's a lot of life a head of me
And I got a lot to learn
I got a lot to learn

I'm borderline
I'm in the middle of this
And I don't know which way,
Which way to go

I'm borderline
I'm in the middle of all of this
And I know don't know which way to go

I've been thinking about my
Aspirations in the sky
There's a lot of life a head of me
And I got a lot to learn
