it's taking a lot out of me to tell you how long it will be before i can spend some sweet time with you again (sweet time)

i'm hoping i'll be finding success (you know you will) you know that i'll be trying my best (you know i will) the thousands of miles will not make me love you less so i'll see the world while you stay home and i'll drive these roads paved in loneliness the dotted lines show us where we're supposed to go we stay inside them in fear that we'll lose control the night falls and the lights they provoke a thought of you

so think what you want of me i'm leaving
i'll be falling asleep at the wheel for once in my life i can say i am right about something i've never been this positively certain

fill me up with unleaded regular we've got 500 miles before this night is over by this time tomorrow i'll be filling up again

trace the moment trace the time
find the second i lost my mind
'cause i've been thinking for the longest time about me and you

(ive been thinking about me and you)

i'm leaving
