Perfection is defined when your heart beats next to mine, and time stands still for us.
My hand in your hair, and yours on my chest.
Moments with you are my life's best.

We crossed paths for a reason
The planets aligned in that particular season
It's clear to me that well eventually be
Inseparable

I love your existence
And I can't get enough X2

Your song is sung, in your beautiful voice
My senses rush, cause they have no other choice
I breathe you in, and I see through your eyes.
You are an angel in a beautiful disguise.

We crossed paths for a reason
The planets aligned in that particular season
It's clear to me that well eventually be
Inseparable

I love your existence
And I can't get enough X2

So pucker up and embrace the greatness
You get me high and erase my sadness. X4

I love your existence,
And I can't get enough

(So pucker up and embrace the greatness,
you get me high and erase my sadness.
I love your existence,
And I can't get enough X3)
