Well Im cracking up, looking at things.
The pieces I have to remember and it cant be gone (gone for good) you have to understand, at least you should well at least you should.
(Whoa) Im glad you understand.

I dont want to go without you
I wont go at all.
I cant even live without you any hope I have is false.

There will be no one to stop you this time.
I fell in your trap and you got what you wanted.
Youre getting in the way of someone else and Im
leaving you just for them

I dont want to go without you
I wont go at all.
I cant even live without you any hope I have is false.

And if its meant to be it wont necessarily be.

This is way too much to handle for me.
Open your eyes and maybe you will see this shouldnt be over yet.

Its a trap, its a trap

Now theres no turning back
Did I fall in? Well, its easy to tell
I fell in, I fell in, and in your mind you win
I can tell, I can tell, cause im going through hell
And we dont even talk - but at least we dont fight
Did you feel grief? No. You never felt anything.
Never forget everything that we had, Im holding on.

I dont want to go without you
I wont go at all.
I cant even live without you any hope I have is false.
