ENGLISH TRANSLATION

I don't care with whom you listen to this song tonight

I don't care with whom you listen to this song tonight
You deserved a better kind of love
You deserved a better kind of love
I don't care with whom you listen to this song tonight

Write me just one letter which I will never read Around us, a great fire is raging

Write me just a word or two
About people and places
That we will never ever see together

Nobody listening to me tonight, and nothing helping me
My guitar is angry with me tonight, and is not talking to me

I walk on broken glass
I walk on broken glass
I don't care with whom you listen to this song tonight

Just write me a letter
That I will never ever read
All around us, a great fire is raging
Just write me a word or two
About people and places
That we will never see together
