My tools of torture come from seduction
It is the root that spawns my evil
It sparks the cause that ends their innocence
While bashing their bleeding skulls
Through walls!

I pick up bitches with a view of machocism
Their views on pain means dick to me!

There was this one girl,
Who came to my place
She seemed a bit quiet, But maybe devious
One thing led to another as it always does
I turned around and tied her ankles to a bed post!
We started out like I always do in doggy style
As she screamed in pleasure
I grabbed her ponytail and bashed her through a brick wall!

She seemed a bit shocked at first and I was stunned as fuck,
When over her mangled face,
Some blood and teeth dripped off her smile
When she was back in consciousness
I sucked the blood off her skin
She said she wanted more, So I punched her in the face
My life erupted in a frenzy.
When I tied her up and beat her down!
