"Save The Day"

Show me just what you're made of, paint it up on a canvas
Master creatures and make up for the world to see Write it down in your black book, tuck it in, underneath your bed
Sit and read the last look

Do you freeze the frame and jump the train
But does it cross your mind?
Did I blow the cloud or worse is not enough for you
To save the day, save the day

Sing it out, sing it loud now, do you mean fade, oh
All alone in the crowd now, I know all the lines
Girl, you lean like a needle, act it out like a movie scene
Sum it up in a sequel

Do you freeze the frame and jump the train
But does it cross your mind?
Did I blow the cloud or worse is not enough for you
To save the day, save the day

Do you freeze the frame and jump the train
But does it cross your mind?
Did I blow the cloud or worse is not enough for you

Do you freeze the frame and jump the train
But does it cross your mind?
Did I blow the cloud or worse is not enough for you
To save the day, save the day

Save the day, save the day
Save the day, the day
Save the day, save the day
Save the day
