Jessi-Jo said you had better not go, Jessi-Jo said you had better not go.

Jessi-Jo says you better think twice, understand and take my advice.

Oh, Jessi-Jo, where did you go? I'm leaving town tonight.

Jessi-Jo, I need you now, do you feel all right? Do you feel all right?

Jessi-Jo said you had better not stray, you have only promises.

Jessi-Jo said you had better stay home from the ice fields far away.

Oh, Jessi-Jo, where did you go? Polar bear on my right.

Jessi-Jo, I need you now, I'm flying blind tonight, flying blind tonight.

Jessi-Jo said you had better not go to the place with the snow and the ice.

Jessi-Jo said you had better beware, understand and take my advice.

Oh, Jessi-Jo, where did you go? There's an oil rig on my right.

Jessi-Jo, I need you now, flying blind tonight, flying blind tonight.

Jessi-Jo said you had better not stray, all we have are promises.

Jessi-Jo said you had better stay home from the ice cap far away.

Oh, Jessi-Jo, where did you go? Polar bear on my right.

Jessi-Jo, I need you now, flying blind tonight.

Oh, Jessi-Jo..where did you go? Do you feel all right?

Jessi-Jo, I need you now, I need you here tonight, flying blind tonight.
