We all go down and I love every moment
You played and lost and you don't even know it
And every day breaks into a thousand pieces
And the rats leave the ship, admitting isn't easy

'Coz I'm one-four-nine on a scale of ten
All you loathe is what I am
Chapter 13

Shattered dreams and a bad moon risin'
You dream of hell and your fear is no surprise
And I'm no prophet but your downfall is true
And the back of my head is now facing you

'Coz I'm one-four-nine on a scale of ten
All you loathe is what I am
Chapter 13

?Coz I'm one-four-nine on a scale of ten
Therefore I am
