End your life
Are there reasons to go on?
Pain won't hurt
'Cause you know you'll soon be gone

Relatives will mourn
'Cause of the loss of one beloved
In time they'll forget
And you'll be gone into the past, die

Blood flows on
Your mind is feeling free
Dying isn't hard
It's happening easily

Why should life
Only be ended by the God?
Decision is up to you
End it or not

Has mankind lost its sanity?
Trying to reach for immortality
The fear for dying is hidden deep
No faith in their eternal sleep, eternal sleep

I was born alive
Isn't that punishment enough?
