I'm the harmony distorted
The jigsaw piece that doesn't fit
The uninvited one who's staying
It's all too sweet, it makes me sick

Why rehearse the same old play
And ask forgiveness on our knees?
Pray for long life, keep on praying
Your mental wounds will never heal

I seem to remember the length of your life doesn't matter
What counts is the kick that you get out of it

If this was meant for me
Why fix what's broken on purpose?
Skip the part of the regret
Time for sorry when I'm dead

No repentance
Just goodbye
No repentance
Just goodbye

If this was meant for me
Why fix what's broken on purpose?
Skip the part of the regret
Time for sorry when I'm dead

No repentance
Just goodbye
No repentance
Just goodbye
Just goodbye

Goodbye
Goodbye
