To much shore this fault!
The lack of special!
My eyes burned
Reflecting...the forest in flames!
Time withdraws
Part time stopping
What wounds are broken
Sleep with so low life!!
The portal is open
The portal to everything
Facing change...then roads
Through this poison way
The knowledge..through digging way?!
YE!
The witchery of lying specials
Eye of the wild self
Deeper and deeper..turning
I hear my mind
In the heart of a god!
GOD!!
Through sons of mind trilling god!
The swear whispers of lions to the meal
Lives ending
The distance star...keeps me trilled... and never fails
Nosing the search of..to the calling..reminding
Of to different new beginnings
Prosperity and beauty
