[Chorus 4X: sample]

Nuttin' shall separate me from your love

[Intro: Christ Bearer (Meko the Pharaoh)]

(Yeah) yeah, Nuttin', Nuttin', Nuttin'

Yeah, not a God damn thing, yeah, yeah that's right, nothing at all

I mean, rain, hail, sleet, snow

Not a motherfucking thing (You know)

[Christ Bearer]

I'm God Almighty in the flesh from the West straight-killin' for this shit

I'm born to die, bitch

My mad-ass click, gives a mad-ass fuck

if you tote them big guns, ?all chickens? can all get stuck and I can put ya brains on the curb

Come and test the NS best and get your punk-ass served

A million motherfuckers can hate me

Salt and gained greatly

Bitches ask what have I done lately and for your love, Nuttin' shall separate me

I only act a fool 'cuz you make me, make me

Wanna take it to the streets and start trippin'

Disrespect the Stars and it's nitroglycerin

Leavin' bystanders with they whole grill missin'

Nuclear fission, bitch don't you listen?

[9th Prince]

Aiyo, I play handball with the 9 planets

Heavenly shells from the cannon

My lyrics is demandin'

From Stapleton to Franklin Ave

Park Place jammin', mind examine

Pull out the hammer while I'm standin' in the DJ booth

Notebook is bulletproof, place it under my chest

Sport it like a vest, dressed like a state trooper

Aim for the best, bloody contest, put you to rest

Killarm' rush the stage, 9th Prince wave the twelve-gauge

Second coming of a Scarface age, Park Hill rage NorthStar, West Coast, nigga, where's your AK?
From Shaolin to Long Beach, with the heat, stay in reach
Vegetarian nigga, still eat beef
Over raw beats, lyrical treats, for the streets

[Chorus 4X]

[Meko the Pharaoh]
We strike all up in ya zone, leave us alone
Deep thoughts, thoughts the ruler couldn't measure
There's a difference in the weather, get it together
Along came the day Northstar ruled the land
You're listening to a man who walked the Rocky Road
Words that explode, control the whole planet
Make ya preacher panic, girlfriends type fanatic
My mind ain't havin' it, inhaling all the damagin'
Leaving bitches stranded, I can't confuse the young Words from the tongue, gettin' girls sprung
Meko rock many, you heard that before
Blunt from the store, filled with hydro
It's the feelin' that you feel when you loose off the weed
NorthStar rock y'all niggaz guaranteed
Bitches on my team and niggaz with guillotines Movin' in a force that super-soaks springs

[P.R. Terrorist]
Bitch shall love, we never separate
We gotta make that cream so we delegate
From the street game to the rap game sometimes I need to meditate
Plus radio manipulate, Hip-Hop is in a fucked up state
That's why I gotta push more and more weight
You got bitch-ass niggaz with more and more hate and there's a lot of bitch niggaz in 52 states that's why I tote them big guns that beef up my waist
Step outta line, kid, get put in ya place Terrorist is like a Wild Western Slugs return you to the essence and all that weak shit you addressin'
NorthStar had a session, invited me
Now I bless you with thoughts from my diary
I can't separate the love that's deep inside of me

[Chorus 4X]
