E-e-choes

You did it to yourself
Now you're all by yourself
Acting like you hate me
I left because you made me
You played me to the left
Now there's nobody left
To hear your complaining
I'm gone (gone)
And all you're hearing is your own

[Chorus]

E-e-choes
E-e-echoes
And I'm gone
And you're all alone
Can't you hear the, hear the
E-e-choes
E-e-echoes
No one to hear you
There's nobody near you

It started off great
But who was to know
That love that is lost
Cannot be let go
You say it's my fault
Okay then I'll go
It's better to know

Now there's nobody to argue with
Cause I'm not home
Don't care who you're with
Don't call my phone
Or did you forget
You know you're wrong
I'm gone (gone)
And you're all alone hearing your own damn

[Chorus]

E-e-choes
E-e-echoes
And I'm gone
And you're alone
Can't you hear the, hear the
E-e-choes
E-e-echoes
Nobody near you
There's no one to hear you

Disgusted with trust
I'll trust no one no more (no more)
Just went with the flow
Found myself on the floor
When you went away
All my pain went astray
Like it's a new day

Now I have no one to argue with
Cause I'm not home
Don't care who you're with
Don't call my phone
Or did you forget
You know you're wrong
I'm gone (gone)
And you're all alone hearing your own damn

[Chorus]
E-e-choes (hearing your own damn)
E-e-echoes
No one is near you
No one can hear you
It's your own damn
E-e-choes
E-e-echoes
No one to hear you
There's nobody near you

All night long
I thought to myself
Why would I stay with you (with you)
Realized that you were the one who had issues
So why would I miss you (why would I miss you)

... to argue with
Cause I'm not home
Don't care who you're with
Don't call my phone
Or did you forget
You know you're wrong
I'm gone (gone)

And you're all alone hearing your own damn

E-e-choes (it's just you and your)

E-e-echoes (it's just you and your)

I hope that ya'll get along (it's just you and your)

E-e-choes (it's just you and your)

E-e-echoes

There's no one to hear you

There's nobody near you

It's your own damn

E-e-choes (your own damn)

E-e-echoes

Echo

E-e-echo

E-e-chos

E-e-echos

Echo

E-e-echo

... to argue with

Cause I'm not home

Don't care who you're with

Don't call my phone

Or did you forget

You know you're wrong

I'm gone...
