Tell me what you want then expect me to believe but I know you're lyin
I cant tell whats real between all of your lies I live in delusion theres so much confusion
These illusions theres so much confusion
These illusions I live in delusion You keep on using me Lets go!
You got me all alone
waiting by the phone
My friends keep tellin me I need to leave your ass alone
If you dont want my love You need to stop leadin me on Tellin me you love me, you've been lyin all along Some people dont realize what they posses until its gone
and they point the blame at others Cant admit that they are wrong Stop wastin my time, you just keep on lyin and I just cant believe that you keep on playin with my mind
Illusions
live in delusion theres so much confusion
These illusions
I live in delusion you keep on usin me Vampire you took my broken heart and sucked it even drier You're such a great liar
You're just like a vampire
I know I wanna know I wanna leave and walk away but your lovin makes me stay
like you got a taste for blood
You suck up all my love
I dont know why id give it up
Your just like a vampire
You use me like a drug and when your finished with me you sweep me under
the rug
i would love to live your life

Party all the time and stay up all night
I wonder what its like to never see the light Your heart is full of darkness and you know that aint right I'm not one to judge cuz I'm so deep enough cuz I'm so deep in love my deepest insecurity is us left me so furious
I cant even like you cuz your so mysterious
illusions
you keep on usin me
VAMPIRE!
you took my broken heart
and sucked it even drier your such a great liar
you just like a vampire
I know I wanna go I wanna leave and walk away
than you suck up all my love I dont know why I give it up
you used me like a drug

you tell me what you want and expect me to believe but I know your lieng
I cant tell whats real between all of your lies I'm living delusions
so much confusion
