You're living in a mystery
You're looking for a magic clue
Your puzzle has a million pieces
Who can put them together
You're living with a heart that's beating
Oooh out of time
You're thinking about the trust of people
All kinds of people
Down in your soul
Your secret's there to find
But you must search
Where spirits fly
Do you believe
In the power of a touch
The answer will come when you can give love
Chorus:
Child of the wind
I feel your warning
Child of the sea
I see your tears
Child of the rain
I hear your thunder
Child of the sky
I hear your cry
You're living with a silent stranger
He's living inside your mind
You're living on the edge of balance
Holding out for a reason
It's part of being human
Oooh it's all right
Some people never have the answer
Don't know the question
Down in your soul
Your secret's there to find
But you must search
Where spirits fly
Do you believe
In the power of a touch
The answer will come when you can give love
Child of the wind
I feel your warning

Child of the sea
I see your tears
Child of the rain
I hear your thunder
Child of the sky
I hear your cry
