Visit "Face Like Summer" on MotoLyrics.com

With a face like summer, and hair like fire, Could you be the one to let in.
Cause I know thats where it begins.

So young in years, probably end in tears, but I soon, I dont mind cause happiness is so hard to find

And I can still recall, the sun going in, north wind came along today and blew my dreams away

And when she lies in the sun, she dont cover her skin, from sun thats to strong to come in

I know that's where it begins

[illegible]
