I'm alone, I'm alive, I've got it all and I've never been more satisfied. I'm an engine, a steam engine. I got money, got no time, but if I did I'd spend the day with you and baby I'd blow your mind. I'm like no other. Yeah that's what they tell me.

If you want me I'm at the top of the heap. If you want me I'm at the top of the heap. If you climb over all the bodies we'll meet. If you want me I'm at the top of the heap. Boo hoo.

Pushed me out, pulled me in, you pushed me out and pulled me in again, you did it again and again and I took it yeah with a smile, with a smile.

If you want me I'm at the top of the heap. If you want me I'm at the top of the heap. If you climb over all the bodies we'll meet. If you want me I'm at the top of the heap. Boo hoo.

Let me inside, let me taste your rejection, channels through my veins. I'm filled like on erection. My heart is pump-pump-pumping louder thn the brightest gun.

If you want the sun I'm gonna eat it like a peach. When money's in the bank it seems like nothing's out of reach. God never showed you lessons I could teach. If you want me I'm at the top of the heap. Boo hoo
