Somebody told you I was lost again
So you came back here to find me
Somebody told you I forgot again
So you came back to remind me

But I'm too far gone for all of that
And no you don't come back from where I'm at

Yeah you can tell them that I fell again
But you couldn't pick me up
Tried every trick you carry in your bag
But it still was not enough

Cause I'm too far gone for all of that
Yeah you can put that rabbit back inside your hat
Yeah cause I don't need that

So now I'm sorry but you need to go
Cause I need to be alone
And anything you think I need to know
Well I'm sure I'll find out on my own

Yeah cause I'm too far gone for all of that
No you don't, you don't come back from where I'm at
No you don't, not from where I'm at
