The alarm clocks screaming and I don't care.
I drank too much I know.
If I say stop and you don't I guess I'll never make it home,
Good Morning Mr. Sunshine - Creo Burn!
The Bulkhead's old and green and seeping in the sea.
It gets on me acid blisters from the Creicin.
Swimming in the sunshine - Creo Burn!

The acid planks infect the water seeping sunshine lilt and sorrow, so demons follow.
The clock screams and I don't care I drank too much
I know. If I say stop and you don't I guess I'll never make it home.
Good morning Mr. Sunshine - Creo Burn. Like a Creo
Burn
