This is not an exit - This is not another human being that wants to be alone.

I can't wait to get stoned. I can't wait to get home.

Arrive inside, Kerri please don't die.

I know everything hurts inside, you go deeper and deeper.

Everything Goes away.

So if in the end and you know it's the end, how long have I been standing here.

Get out from behind the wheel, smash your fuckin face
I will.

Same Moonshine, it hurts from the inside.

When nobody else cuts in you go deeper and deeper.

Nothing brings me closer, nothing makes me shake.

All Night the cat's cry in this sickened mind, the one's who've gone astray.

Somewhere someone's contemplating suicide, the pain's too much to bare.

All night the cat's cry in this sickened mind, The Ones
who've gone astray.

Somewhere someone's contemplating suicide, the pain's too much to bear. Everything Goes Away
