Got this everlasting feeling deep inside
Try to convince myself it's fine but I can't hide
Isn't really hard to see, we're all getting hate for free
While this sinking world is drowning it's own destiny

Dream on, dream on
I don't wanna lose my faith and come undone
Dream on, dream on
I really hope that I'm not fighting on my own

So the road of suffering seems to never end
Oh, it is so unfair, I just don't understand
And to reach the higher ground that we've lost and never found
We gotta learn how to love, learn how to live to be free
It's up to you and me

Dream on, dream on
All I know is I won't make it on my own
Dream on, dream on
Gotta hold on to my dreams before they're gone

Come on, dream on Keep on dreaming on

Dream on, dream on
I don't wanna lose my faith and come undone
Dream on, dream on
I really hope that I'm not fighting on my own

Dream on, dream on
On, and on, and on
And on, and on
And on, and on, and
