"Father Is That Enough?"

You came into my life,... Boy I didn't found the words to let you know
we were like strangers, heaven knows
with a many ways to go

But it's over now, right before we started
It's all over now,
it's weather blown away

No, you don't need to sacrifice nor hide the risin' sun made a million, got it all

father, is that enough ?

Remember i was lonely
I was nowhere Couldn't stand the pain i wore
And yeah, i keep learning Live is livin'
so much more than words can say But it's over now, no gambling with my soul
It's all over now
I found my way to go
