Been almost a thousand years, since I started killing
time
Every day reminds me how I feel
Couldn't face the ending, so I left it undefined
I was wrong, I was wrong
Now there's nothing I can do
Cause still I belong to you
Took a train to nowhere , now I start the long road back
Look for signs but no real place to go
OhÃ¢â€šÂ¡
I'll find someone to take me where, you're completely out of view
Lay it down, lay it down
I try to be strong, but still I belong to you
If we had the chance to take it
Could we find the way to make things right
Did I mean that much to you, who-oh Gotta face the dream is over, that's just the way the story goes
And I can't believe it's true
That still I belong
Still I belong to you
Been almost a thousand years, since I started killing
time
In and out of love, I thought was real
I was wrong , I was wrong
Now there's so much more
That I could give to you
If we had the chance to take it
Could we find the way to make things right
Did I mean that much to you
Who-oh
Gotta face the dream is over
That's just the way the story goes
But I can't believe it's true
That still I belong, still I belong to you
To you.. I try to be strong
But still I belong
To youÃ¢â€šÂ¡ to youÃ¢â€šÂ¡ to youÃ¢â€šÂ¡
