I know m'heart is heavy
I know m'thoughts is blue
I know the light will be shining all night
Bells will be ringing dark and true
M' bells will be ringing dark and true
I feel like it's been raining
I feel m'bones peelin paint
I know the red will be turnin twords the gold
All my warmth will be cold
All m'dark hair will be old
I see my fathers face
Standing in my fathers skin
See m'fathers old and ugly shadow
Down at the bottom of my pen
Heart of gold growing dim
