

Gourds "New Dues"

Still in line
Spoon in my hand
And the mouth that roared Didn't get fed
And the squeaky wheel
Blown out and rusted
A fellah yelled, candy
But we all stood still
No I didn't panic
But I had a chill
Yes, I had a chill

CHORUS

Just got my new dues
Just got my new dues
Just got my new dues today
Who's buyin'?
So I hit the bricks
But my place was saved
now look at my cheek found out the road was paved spilling the rich krovy catch it in my pan
try to feed the flunky
watch the fallen stand Just call my number
Hand me down my rag
Hand me down my rag
Hand me down my rag
