I washed it with water

Made it smell like rosemary

A funny little tearbox

A chest full of laughter

Well I drank hot coffee

Well I drank so much coffee

Now my hair it sticks up like the startled squirrels

It's always four in the morning

To understand all these containers

I'll imitate a mile

Walk with me for awhile

It dissapears like the tearbox

I'll imitate a mile

Walk with me for awhile

It dissapears like the tearbox
