They say everything can be replaced
And every distance is not near
I remember every face
Of every man who brought me here

I see my light come shining
From the west down to the east
Anyday now, anyway now
I shall be released

They say every man needs protection
And every man must surely fall
I swear, I swear I see my reflection
Well, somewhere high, high above this concrete wall
I can say

I see my light come shining
From the west down to the east
Anyday now, anyway now
I shall be released

They understands a man this lonely crowd
Thhe swears he's not
All day long, I hear him scream so loud
Just calling out, just calling out
That he was framed

I see my light come shining
From the west down to the east
Anyday now, anyway now
I shall be released

I see my light come shining
From the west down to the east
Anyday now, anyway now
I shall be released

I see my light come shining, shining
From the west down to the east
Anyday now, anyway now
I shall be released

Anyday now
Tell me one more time
Tell me one more time
Tell me one more time
Tell me one more time

Tell me one more time
Tell me one more time
Tell me one more time
Tell me one more time
Anyday now
I shall be released
