Visit "Cutting Room Floor" on MotoLyrics.com

80 people died today hurtled to their deaths on a runaway train i turn to CNN on my tv but george-fucking-bush is all i see its all i fucking hear about world news tonight, whats going on?

a man turned himself into a walking bomb the president chokes and decides to golf the real tragedy gets fucking lost lost on the cutting room floor who screwed who, and how and why who really cares when people die?

and all i hear is "nicole and tom"

they print bullshit, fluff and lies and overlook every time an Iraqi dies when the pope died its all i could fucking hear i guess thats easier than living in fear world news tonight, whats goin' on? innocent people being blown apart the real tragedy's forgotten at whatever the cost and were fucking lost
