Every day it's all the same
there's no way out Every day's the fucking same
there's no way out
no way out

something's gotta fuckin change im losing my grip, im going insane theres gotta be more to life than stumbling day to day all these fuckin bullshit laws, im wasting away something's gotta fuckin give this is no way for people to live the dictate our lives from a desk a million miles away they don't care if we live or die one fuckin bit trying to keep us afraid trying to lock us away government warning - fuck you
