Wanna fucking quit, but probation says no doesn't even matter, 'cuz i got nowhere else to go 50 hours a week, work my finger to the bone my body fuckin' aches and mu mind is fucking blown boss is on my ass a bunch of yuppies in my face i wanna build a bomb and destroy this fucking place wake up at the crack of dawn and break my fucking back

they pay me fucking peanuts and i'm about to snap everyday, day after fucking day i'm working my life away every single stupid pointless day everyday, every day day after fucking day slave labor is the only way i wanna fucking quit but my truck is broken down i dive head first into a beer and hope i fuckin' drown wake up at the crack of dawn and break my fuckin'
