Cut your fucking hair i'm trapped in this city, its so unfair so much fashion, bullshit name dropping i've lived here my whole life and where has it gotten me? nowhere

this isn't my scene theres nothing to fight for so i fucking dream of never coming back from tour nowhere this place is fucking nowhere i'm going fucking nowhere nowhere fast

fast as fuckin' hell fuck this place, i wanna go home feeling chilled to the fucking bone i'm sick of cars and sick of cellphones everyone just leave me alone gotta get out before it swallows me whole to burn down this town is my ultimate goal all your clothes, all this baggage Richmond city is so fucking tragic i wanna go home
