With urgent hands

We excited

A fire so hot

Two lives were ignited

Now I'm left here on my own

But I'll never be alone

Down forbidden streets I talk with

Every single step I walk with

All the lovers in the world (all the lovers in the world)

Though the lonely night's returning

I can feel the flame that's burning

All the lovers in the world

Virgin lips I have tasted

Love so pure, not a drop was wasted

Paradise we shared together

Lives inside of me forever

Down forbidden streets I talk with

Every single step I walk with

All the lovers in the world (all the lovers in the world)

Though the lonely night's returning

I can feel the flame that's burning

All the lovers in the world (all the lovers in the world)

Since you touched me

I can't be free

This is every lover's destiny

Down forbidden streets I talk with

Every single step I walk with

All the lovers in the world (all the lovers in the world)

Though the lonely night's returning

I can feel the flame that's burning

All the lovers in the world (all the lovers in the world)

Down forbidden streets I talk with

Every single step I walk with

All the lovers in the world (all the lovers in the world)
