Still lost in the moment of it your body felt so right and I can't Breathe it was so complete.
Touch your hair, I feel your heartbeat, Can't believe your here with me oh wo oh oh
you make my heart weak Can't believe that your here with me when you deserve the best I may have doubted god above
But for you I must confess
There's an Angel In My Bed
in my arms is where she lays
and I pray she would always stay
There's an Angel In My Bed
Here to see me through
I never believed in miracles
till the day that I met you Softly Breathe upon my shoulder Feels so warm then you nudge closer to me

Am I in your dream Skins so soft against my body intertwined just you and me ooh ooh girl you are my queen Moonlight lights us oh this is such a special night for me to have the one that i've searched for right here next to me
Here to see me through
