I was lonely. Never knew what to do. But then one day, one day I saw you. You were the light in the sun. I was the darkness of the night. All I ever wanted was for you and I to be friends. For us to be friends.

So I said, "Hey! Hey! Don't you hesr what I Say? Say! All I want is for you and I to be friends forever, together now." So I said, "Come on, come on, come on, let's go be friends now. Come on, come on, come on, put on a show now. Come on, come on, come on, let's go be friends now. Come on, come on, come on, come on, let's go be friends now. Come on come on, come on, come on, lots to do now. Come on, come on, come on, let's go be friends now!
