What will come of us today
What we need we cannot say
Its been a long long time since Ive been so afraid
As we all fall down its hard to see a brighter day but

Chorus

I see a tiny light like a flashbulb sparkle in the night
I see a tiny light telling everyone to hold on tight
uuuuugh

What will come of all our pride
This house of stone has crumbled from the inside
It's been a long long war now the battle is drawing near Closer and closer till it whispers in my ear
Whoaaa oooh

Chorus

I see a tiny light like a flashbulb sparkle in the night
I see a tiny light telling everyone to hold on tight

Bring me back the streets of gold
Give me somethin warm to hold
Give me love and only love and you will see it shining from above

Chorus

I see a tiny light like a flashbulb sparkle in the night
I see a tiny light telling everyone to hold on tight
I see a tiny light like a flashbulb sparkle in the night
I see a tiny light telling everyone to hold on tight

I see a tiny light but its not going to shine without a fight
