Can you believe in something
Bigger than what you left behind
Like a balloon on a long string
The recipe for the mastermind

One part sugar
Two parts feeling
Three cups full of bottled lightening
Four parts water
Five parts believing
Mix it all together and put both feet in

Can you rely on your own two hands
To cut you free from all that made you blind
One in a million would be given this change
The recipe for the mastermind

One part sugar

Two parts feeling
Three cups full of bottled lightening
Four parts water
Five parts believing
Mix it all together and put both feet in

Oh won't you be my mastermind
Oh won't you be my mastermind
I'm gonna feed you and make you shine
Oh won't you be my mastermind

One part sugar
Two parts feeling
Three cups full of bottled lightening
Four parts water
Five parts believing
Mix it all together and put both feet in
