Don't let the sun beat you down
Steal your crown
Hold your head to the ground
Just keep on walking

Don't let your soul lose control
Let you roll down the mountain you climbed

Don't let the sand blind your eyes
Realize they're only lies and
Keep on walking

Let it cover you with grace
Let it take you from this place
And as your heart races
Pack your suitcases
And in the middle of the desert
There's an Oasis

Don't let your bones turn to stone
Cause you're feeling so alone
Just keep on walking

Don't count the miles
That you've climbed
Make you go blind
Cause baby there's something to find
Don't hide you eyes from the light
Just hold on tight
And soon it'll be alright

Let it cover you with grace
Let it take you from this place
And as your heart races
Pack your suitcases
And in the middle of the desert
There's an Oasis

And you know that it's closer than you think
And you know that if you're the first to blink
And you know you gotta swim before you sink so low

Let it cover you with grace
Let it take you from this place
And as your heart races
Pack your suitcases
And in the middle of the desert
There's an Oasis
