I lit a fire with the love you left behind
It burned wild and crept up the mountain side
I followed your ashes into outer space
I can't look out the window
I can't look at this place
And I can't look at the stars
They make me wonder where you are
Stars, up on heaven's boulevard
And if I know you at all
I know you've gone too far
So I, I can't look at the stars
All those times we looked up at the stars
Looking out so far we felt like we could fly
Now I'm all alone in the dark of night
The moon is shining, but I can't see the light
And I can't look at the stars
They make me wonder where you are
Stars, up on heaven's boulevard
And if I know you at all
I know you've gone too far
So I, I can't look at the stars
Stars
Stars, they make me wonder where you are
Stars, up on heaven's boulevard
And if I know you at all
I know you've gone too far
So I, I can't look at the stars
