"Termites Hollow"

Visit "Termites Hollow" on MotoLyrics.com

I am above from where they are reaching and what they ask of me I am beyond as life unfolds these eleven lessons in chaos I lay before you but should forgiveness play part in this procedure because pebbles and sand still sink ships and are even above from where I am reaching broken buttons and flawless skin have landed me within this tender trap just to boar through flesh and to extract the materials of the world from me pay no mind of my retreat because the other rats can always show you the way
