"Triumph & Tragedy"

All I want is the best for myself
To triumph over tragedy
The overwhelming power of death is there just to inspire
Translation, life is different ways of not dying

My Relationship with reality, it comes and goes

We rarely see eye to eye.
She's disappointed when I try, and upset when I don't.
Her smell lingers in my sheets, and in my shirts.
It teases my memories, from time to time.
And from time to time, I cradle desire into slumbering fantasies

My Relationship with reality, it comes and goes
