Oh no I'm over throwing stones at windows
Oh No Oh no
Oh no after all this time it outta show
oh no oh no
I want you back
I want you back (repeat)
I want you to know
That i took everything.. for granted
If you want to know the truth
It was an accident of youth
And the last thing that I'm taking is the blame
Oh no everything I stood for I'm laying down
Oh no Oh no
Oh no anything for the score but I lost count
Oh no Oh no
I want you back
I want you back (repeat)
I want you to know that I took everything.. for granted
If you want to know the truth
It was an accident of youth
And the last thing that I'm taking is the blame
