Won't you take me down to Emilia's corner
Sit and talk awhile
Paint my mind, thoughts and feelings
With broad strokes on a canvas
As if you could read me
Seems like it's everything I needed
Until I finally figured out how to be Honest with myself
It leaves me dreaming
Leaves me with a faded smile
(chorus)
If you could read me (if you could read me)
Then you'd believe me (then you'd believe)
If you could read me (if you could read me)
Then you'd believe me
Sit back breathe the air a moment
Do you taste what I taste
See it in my eyes
You know it leaves me guessing
So why should it ever come as a surprise
(chorus)
Won't you take me down to Emilia's corner
Sit and talk awhile
Paint my mind thoughts and feelings
With broad strokes on a canvas
As if you could read me
(chorus)
